

Horses Race In Rain At Ellenville Fair

Threatening Weather Kept Down Attendance Thursday, But Racing Was Good—Baby Show Held—Huguenot Grange Won First Prize at County Fair Which Closes Saturday Night.

Through a drizzling fall of rain that drove the box holders in the grand stand from their seats to seek shelter under the grand stand roof, some fast time was stepped by the racing horses on the half mile track of the Ulster County Agricultural Society's fair grounds at Ellenville on Thursday afternoon. It was Farm Bureau, Home Bureau and Grange day at the county fair but the threatening weather kept many at home. The attendance, however, was good considering the drizzle of rain that fell at intervals throughout the afternoon.

Owing to the inclement weather that has greeted the county fair this year it was decided by the officials in charge to extend the fair another day, and Saturday will be closing day with some fast horse racing scheduled for the afternoon.

Huguenot Grange Wins

Four Granges in Ulster county entered the contest for first place in the exhibit of fruits, vegetables and flowers, and the honor of winning the blue ribbon was finally awarded to Huguenot Grange of New Paltz, which was awarded 89 points by the judges. Plattekill Grange was second with 85 1/2 points; Ulster Grange, No. 959, was third with 81 points, and Huguenot Grange was fourth with 73 points.

All four exhibits were worthy of high praise. The exhibit of apples was exceptionally fine, showing that Ulster county apples stand second to none in the world.

First Annual Baby Show

The first annual baby show to be held at the county fair was staged Thursday afternoon in front of the grandstand where the proud mothers and fathers brought their babies to be judged by Miss Lillian Hagelweide, Ulster county nurse, who had a difficult job in selecting the winners in the various classes.

Julia, the twelve months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews of Ellenville, was awarded first prize in the group of babies between the ages of 12 and 18 months; while Margaret, the thirteen months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross K. Osterhouse of Stone Ridge, was awarded second place.

In the group of babies under four months old, Anna, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Teare of Ellenville, was awarded second prize. There was no first prize awarded in this group.

In the group of babies aged from eight to twelve months, first prize was won by Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deyo Johnson of Ellenville. Second place in this group was awarded to Jacob, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Skinner of Ellenville.

There were also two special classes. Willard, the five months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Peet of Ellenville, winning first in this group, and Robert, the 6 1/2 months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Vanderlyn of Ellenville, winning first in his group.

The Guideloss Wonder. One of the free attractions staged at the fair this year is a group of trained running horses headed by the Guideloss Wonder. This horse paces a mile race with another horse hitched to a racing sulky. The Guideloss Wonder races without driver or sulky and is so well trained that when the starter would ring the bell signifying that a false start had been made, the horse would turn in its tracks and return to the starting point. This was done three times and at the fourth the starter shouted "Go," and the race was on with the Guideloss Wonder leading the way for the entire mile, which was paced in 2:18.

A Touch of Comedy

A touch of comedy was added to the act when two guideloss pacers were brought out to race "Sparkie," who was gaily attired in a huge yellow blanket and was hitched to an old fashioned racing sulky and driven by a man garbed as a clown. Sparkie had only gotten part way around the track when sulky and horse suddenly parted company and Sparkie peered around the track alone, catching up to the two other horses, and passing them. Sparkie proved to be the "Guideloss Wonder."

Another act that caught the popular fancy was "Placing the cart before the horse." In this the racing sulky was in front of the horse, and driver and horse faced each other all the way round the track.

Other Acts

Some of the other free acts were a balancing chair act and a musical act that was given a big hand by the crowd.

Fireworks at Night

As usual there is also a night session of the fair held with a display of fireworks and the midway in full blast.

The music at the fair this year is furnished by the Citizens' Band.

Seek $25,000 to Complete Church

Appeal to Be Made for Funds, With Which to Complete New Franklin Street A. M. E. Zion Church.

Charles Ramsey, president of the Franklin Street A. M. E. Zion Church, is making an appeal for funds to complete the new church building in process of construction.

Mr. Ramsey appointed his publicity committee and is making preparations for an organization for the September campaign for funds in behalf of these worthy citizens and their place of worship.

Nothing can appeal more to the people of Kingston and surrounding towns of Ulster county than a request for financial help to this congregation in their need.

According to the report of the treasurer, Charles de la Vergne, the amounts paid contractors are as follows:

	Amount	Paid	Balance
Mason	$15,842	$ 9,960	$ 5,882
Carpenter	13,900	2,800	11,100

Total $29,742 $12,760 $16,982

The amount received by the treasurer from all sources since the burning of the old edifice is $12,804.21. Less bills paid out $12,760.00.

Balance on hand $ 44.21

Therefore, approximately $16,937 will be required to enclose the building. The Campaign Committee will not stop there, however, in this emergency. Plumbing and heating equipment, painting and metal work have to be provided for in order to make the church building habitable, so that Mr. Ramsey and his organization will ask for $21,000 to cover the completion of the entire job, as the estimates for interior work are about $9,000.

The pastor, Mr. Clarke, the trustees and members of the church and Mr. Ramsey all desire to extend their thanks to those who have so generously given to this good cause, and to the brick manufacturers and others who have been likewise more than liberal with materials, etc., they are also exceedingly grateful.

The date for the appeal for funds has not yet been decided upon.

Railway Mail Clerk Arrested

John Melville of Foxhall Avenue Arrested Thursday by Federal Inspectors and Held for Federal Court on Charge of Theft.

John Melville of 242 Foxhall avenue, this city, was arrested by Postal Inspectors Teagle and Ford Thursday on a charge of opening a letter and embezzling money from the United States mails. Melville was employed as a railway mail clerk operating between Kingston and Montgomery on the Walkill Valley Railroad.

The arrest was made while Melville was at work. The specific charge against Melville named in the complaint is the opening of a letter addressed to Miss Pearl Marshall, Camp Ideal, R. F. D. No. 2, Walkill, N. Y., and taking therefrom $7.50 in currency. Money has been disappearing from the mails for some time and inspectors were sent here to investigate and locate the guilty party. By means of a decoy letter the inspectors claim to have involved Melville, and placed him under arrest.

Melville was arraigned before United States Commissioner Arthur C. Connolly Thursday on complaint of the post office inspectors, waived examination and was held in $1,000 bond for appearance before U. S. District Court in New York city.

BOREAH COMMENTS ON SMITH'S WET STAND

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 24 (P).—Senator William E. Boreah of Idaho in a statement issued last night, said every state line in the United States would become a Canadian border with no way to prevent liquor traffic across lines under the state option system advocated by Governor Alfred E. Smith in his acceptance speech.

Citing Canadian provinces as an example of what he claimed would occur in the United States, the senator said the Canadian situation was one where liquor is plentiful, corruption is rampant and bootlegging is universal.

Referring to the Democratic nominee's advocacy of a system of public ownership, management and control of the liquor traffic, Senator Boreah said:

"Facts are overwhelming and at hand to show that instead of creating respect for law this system increases lawlessness; instead of controlling liquor traffic it gives infinitely better opportunity for unlawful traffic in liquor."

"Bureaucratic government at its best is bad enough," he declared. "But bureaucratic government engaged in manufacture, sale and distribution of liquor would be a cesspool of iniquity and corruption. It would be bureaucracy and bureaucracy drunk."

SCOUTS MAY RIDE MARE IN RELAYS 1,000 MILES

Superior, Wis., Aug. 24 (P).—Boy Scouts may ride a five year old mare in relays, 1,000 miles from here to Gallup, N. M.

Molly, the mare which brought Boyd Jones, 14, from Gallup in a 69-day trip to see President Coolidge, at first faced a wandering journey alone when Jones said she wasn't worth $160, the price of shipping.

But since Jones was starting for home today by automobile, Scouts of Superior offered to ride the cow pony in relays, meeting other Scouts along the route, thus safeguarding Molly's trip southward.

In accordance with this proposal, Superior Scouts would ride the mare to Webster, Wis., about 60 miles away, where other members of the national organization would take her to the next relay station along the road.

It all was to be decided today because Boyd and his father were to leave. If the Scout plans fail, radio station WERC will broadcast an appeal for the amount necessary to send the pony home on the train.

Hoover Returning To Washington To Direct Campaign

First Trip Has Taken Him Into 19 States—His Forces Gratified by Conditions—Declines to Comment on Smith's Acceptance Speech—Future Plans Not Completed.

Hoover Train, En Route to Washington, Aug. 24 (P).—Crossing Ohio and Pennsylvania today, Herbert Hoover is completing his first campaign trip, one that has taken him into 19 states from coast to coast and border to border.

Since leaving Washington on July 14, the Republican presidential candidate has covered more than 8,000 miles, has been greeted by nearly a million persons, delivered five prepared addresses, including that accepting the nomination, and made more than two dozen rear platform talks.

He returns to Washington early tonight to take personal charge of his campaign forces gratified by conditions as he has found them, and heartened for the strenuous contest that is ahead in a campaign just now setting under way.

The reception given him in Iowa, the state of his birth, and reports he received while there from leaders from all of the great grain growing states were particularly pleasing, for in going to the place of his birth to renew boyhood associations he was moving into the one section of the country which had furnished cause for apprehension by at least some party leaders.

Favorable Reaction to Acceptance Speech

While some of his advisers told Hoover bluntly that the outlook in Minnesota, Wisconsin and some other northwestern states was not as satisfactory as might be, they said his acceptance speech had been received favorably and that there was a strong indication that he would carry every state in the turbulent grain belt.

In his personal talks with leaders, the nominee was able to bring into line several who at best had been only lukewarm toward his candidacy and others who had hesitated to announce their support.

Hoover returns home with the campaign issues drawn, and with the prohibition question standing well to the forefront owing to the death of the Democratic opponent for amendment of the Eighteenth amendment so as to permit state determination of the liquor question.

Silent on Smith Address

The Republican nominee has steadily declined to make any comment on Governor Alfred E. Smith's acceptance address. However, his advisers say he will discuss the prohibition question later, emphasizing his own declaration of the enforcement laws which would permit that which the Constitution forbids.

Hoover's campaign plans have yet to be mapped out, and details will depend largely on conditions as they develop in various sections of the country. It is generally believed by his advisers, however, that he will visit the border states and invade the south and make some speeches in the east before his second swing across the country at the close of the campaign so as to be at his Stanford University home in time to vote on November 6.

Receives Enthusiastic Farewell

When he departed late yesterday from Cedar Rapids, the Republican candidate was given an enthusiastic farewell by the citizens there, while 200 residents of his birthplace, West Branch, were gathered at the station there for a last greeting as his train swept through the village running an hour and a half behind schedule, due to a change of plans agreed on in the forenoon.

Rock Island, Ill., was the first stop, and several hundred persons were gathered at the station. Hoover appeared on the back platform with Mrs. Hoover and smiled in response to the cheers. Then there was a pause, broken by a woman before it had reached the awkward stage.

"Well, Mr. Hoover, you do look just like any other man," she called out from a place well back in the crowd.

Hoover Shows Embarrassment

"Mrs. Hoover thinks he is better looking than any other man," he said, and the nominee's wife smiled. Her husband appeared slightly embarrassed as he leaned over to shake hands with men, women and boys who struggled for first places in the circle around the car platform.

Before their special reached Chicago to be transferred there to the Pennsylvania lines, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover attended a moving picture show in the dining car. These shows have been given nightly since the departure from California a week ago, but this was the first one they had attended.

During the run today through Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maryland, Hoover will make five rear platform appearances, at Alliance, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Altoona and Harrisburg, Pa.; and Baltimore. He is due at Washington at 9 p. m. tonight.

Levine Postpones Takeoff

Dessau, Germany, Aug. 24 (P).—Charles A. Levine and Bert Acosta, who planned to hop off today on the first leg of a flight to America, have postponed the takeoff until after another trial flight. This decision was made in order to thoroughly test their Junker plane's navigation instruments before attempting the trip.

Predict Election Of H.E. Machold

As Chairman of the State Republican Committee—Interest Turns to Composition of State Ticket.

New York, Aug. 24 (P).—News-papers and political leaders were almost unanimous today in predicting the election of H. Edmund Machold as chairman of the State Republican Committee.

Whatever opposition there might have been to his selection as successor to the late George K. Morris was believed to have been swept away at the informal dinner given by Charles D. Hill, national committee man, at the Metropolitan Club last night.

The state committee will meet to select its new leader this afternoon. Mr. Machold is a former speaker of the state assembly and now president of the Northeastern Power Co. His home is in Watertown.

There was no formal discussion of the coming election or of possibilities for the state ticket at the dinner, it was said, but leaders informally discussed the strength of various candidates.

Guests at the dinner included the county chairman, Mr. Machold, Miss Sarah Schuyler Butler, vice chairman of the state committee, and acting chairman since Mr. Morris' death, William H. Hill, Hoover manager for the state and at one time prominently mentioned for the state chairmanship, and Mrs. Charles H. Sabine, vice chairman of the national committee.

Mr. Machold's selection had been practically assured since last Saturday when, at a meeting of the state leaders at Amsterdam following funeral services for Mr. Morris, his name was put forward as the most acceptable candidate. Mr. Hill, the only other candidate, issued a statement Sunday praising Mr. Machold's abilities and indicating the acceptance of his candidacy by the Hoover forces.

Discuss State Ticket

With the selection of the new chairman decided upon, interest turned to the composition of the state ticket.

The Hoover forces are understood to be opposed to the selection of former Senator James W. Wadsworth as the party's senatorial candidate this year. He is a wet and they hold his selection would hurt the chances of the national ticket in November. Efforts to draft Charles Evans Hughes for the post are reported to have met with a flat refusal. Other names mentioned are those of Representative Bertram H. Snell of Potsdam, Justice Arthur S. Tompkins of Nyack, State Senator George R. Fearon of Syracuse, Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of Putnam county, Ogden L. Mills, undersecretary of the treasury, and former Senator William M. Calder of Brooklyn.

Attorney General Albert Ottinger and United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle, both of New York, are the two most prominently mentioned for the governorship. Until Mr. Morris' death Mr. Ottinger was believed to have the best chance of success, but the attorney general is said to have lost his strongest supporter with the passing of the state chairman.

Nominations for the State Ticket will be made at the state convention in Syracuse September 26.

LONDON BOBBIES MUST MEASURE DOGS' TAILS

London, Aug. 24 (P).—All London laughed, grinned, smiled or chuckled according to individual temperament today when it became known that Home Secretary Joynson-Hicks has issued an order to dignified London policemen to measure the tails of stray dogs.

The idea behind the order is to help identify the dogs to possible owners by using tail lengths, just as finger prints are used in the case of humans.

Newspaper paragraphers when they learned of the order demanded to know whether the measures supplied to the policemen would be red tape, whether the tails are likely to grow from one day to another, what will happen if they will not cease wagging and which side of the tail curves will be measured.

A policeman was interviewed and said he didn't think the dog's tail would prove nearly far enough away from his bite.

JOHN COOLIDGE DESCRIBES HIS DAILY ROUTINE

Superior, Wis., Aug. 24 (P).—Although President Coolidge has on different occasions expressed thorough satisfaction with his vacation at Cedar Rapids Island Lodge, his son, John, is said to be anticipating the departure in the fall.

"What do you do at Cedar Island Lodge?" John was asked. "Eat breakfast," he replied; "take a little walk; read; eat lunch; walk; read; eat dinner; walk; read; to bed."

"I like to golf, but father doesn't care anything for it."

"Father likes to fish, and I care nothing for fishing."

Fire Follows Explosion

Irondequoit, N. Y., Aug. 24 (P).—An explosion which blew out one side of a residence at 22 Deerfield drive early today was followed by fire, which destroyed the building in a short time. Charles Coco, owner of the place, with his family, was in Buffalo.

Floating Gambling Ship Captured

Law Enacted in 1793 Invoked by Federal Officials When California Officials Find Themselves Without Authority.

San Pedro, Cal., Aug. 24 (P).—Stripped of its gaiety and gamblers, the floating casino Johanna Smith rode at anchor here today, its games of chance ended and its purported owner in jail, all because ancient maritime law had been dusted off to give federal authorities seizure rights on the high seas.

The ship was captured by the government yesterday, two months after the alleged owner, Albert Howard, had set up gambling operations on it 12 miles off the coast, and defied every effort of Los Angeles and Orange county police to crimp his business.

Before he surrendered, it was necessary to resort to a radio call to a United States coast guard cutter to force his hand, after which the government got Howard, the ship, its crew of 30 and $11,000. The owner was held by the United States Marshall's office today pending further action, while his ship was under $200,000 bond. The crew was released.

It was a statute enacted in 1793 that was invoked to end the gambling activities. Originally aimed at piracy, the statute provided for forfeiture of a ship and all contents when employed for any trade other than that for which licensed.

The Johanna Smith had been licensed for coastal trade and a writ of attachment issued by federal court at Los Angeles yesterday was based on the charge that it had been operating as a gambling barge.

Three deputy United States marshals attempted to serve the writ but when they boarded the ship, the crew appeared distinctly belligerent. A radio call to a coast guard cutter brought 15 armed men who took the ship in charge and sailed it into harbor. The marshals found $11,000 in the ship's strong boxes.

County authorities had been helpless to take any action because of the ship's location out of their jurisdiction. Crowds estimated at 300 to 400 had visited the ship nightly, police said, although no liquor was allowed on board.

Coolidge Plans Return to Capitol

Superior, Wis., Aug. 24 (P).—President Coolidge will leave Cedar Island Lodge for the east on September 11th or the evening of the 10th, according to reliable information today.

Instead of going directly to New England, as first reported, it was said the President would probably spend a few days at Washington before heading north.

The public schools of Superior are scheduled to open September 4, but Mr. Coolidge was informed that would be postponed until he wished to leave permitting him to retain his executive offices in the high school.

Not wishing to inconvenience the schools unnecessarily it was believed the chief executive set the date of departure just a week later than the customary opening.

Reason for Delaying Start of the Home Trip until after September 4, it was explained, was to avoid a possible heat wave in Washington.

HOME COMING IN NATIONAL CAPITAL FOR HOOVER

Washington, Aug. 24 (P).—Friends of Herbert Hoover will stage a big homecoming show tonight when the nominee returns to Washington after an absence of more than five weeks.

As expressed at Republican national headquarters, the celebration will be the outgrowth of a feeling "that he belongs as much to Washington as to Palo Alto and West Branch."

Delegations of patriotic and civic organizations will greet the party nominee when his train pulls in. The reception is being sponsored by the local Hoover and Curtis Club.

NEW ROCHELLE MAN HAS BOUGHT SAUGERTIES BLOCK

The Russell block the three story brick building located at Main and Market streets, Saugerties, has been sold to William Roth of New Rochelle, who will completely renovate the building. The second floor will be arranged into either business offices or lodge rooms. The building was erected in 1872 by William F. Russell.

On Thursday evening the annual meeting of the Ulster County Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health was held at Camp Happyland and was far from being either dry or uninteresting. The children at Camp Happyland gave a fine little program and annual reports showed that decidedly constructive tuberculosis and public health work is being accomplished in a quiet but efficient manner in Ulster county.

It had been hoped that the program might be given out of doors with the full performance of setting-up exercises as practiced by the children in the camp, but the inclement weather made that impossible, so the large dining room was converted into a miniature hall, and the program opened with a little one-act playlet cleverly given by the older girls—for this is girls' month at the camp—as follows:

Cast.
Jack.....Betty Heaps
Ted.....Anna Perry
Red.....Joseph Cole
Algernon.....Helen Thompson
Miss Fringles.....Beatrice Minkler
Bill.....Marie Minkler
Polly.....Helen Hobert
Betty.....Anna Kwasnick
Jane.....Cora Perris
Mr. Gilmore.....Miss Mary Boyd

Scene, school room on a spring morning, when a captain of the School Club is elected and a prize for scholarship—in this case because of efficient health work—awarded. The playlet which was genuinely peppy and realistic was given under the direction of Miss Dorothy Chadwick, physical director, graduate of the Sargent College, Cambridge, Mass. During this month Miss Chadwick has been ably assisted in her work by Miss Mary Boyd who has taught the children much useful and attractive handicraft.

Children Gain by Camp Life

Following the playlet, the tiny tots at the camp, eight in number, in bright colored crepe paper costumes, gave a number of pretty singing games and then the entire group went through as many of their setting-up exercises as they could do within the limited space. The children's performances were enthusiastically applauded by the members of the Tuberculosis Committee present, who fully appreciated the splendid work accomplished at the camp this summer. For one thing, there has been a gain of 80 pounds for the 25 children at the camp during the month of August to date. Yet, as was well said, added weight is not the only gain made. Poise and a happy outlook on life seemed to be almost as much of a health asset gained for the underfed, under-nourished, underprivileged children who came there during the months of July and August.

NO HIGHWAYS OF EYE SORES

Campaign On to Clear Roads of Unsightly Signs and Refreshment Stands.

New York.—The deplorable condition of the majority of the roadside refreshment stands that dot the highways and landscapes at frequent intervals from coast to coast is one of those public evils which is constantly being lamented, but about which, although the history of the so-called "roadside" industry goes back 25 years, little has been done. These unsightly little huts have become a real menace to the beauty of our countryside.

The indictment frequently brought against the American people is that we are reckless disregarders of our natural resources, our parks, landscapes and forests. While we do not willingly admit the truth of the accusation, we are forced to the acknowledgment that our increasing appreciation of natural beauty comes from the realization that such of it is disappearing to make room for man's commercialism in the form of garish posters and hideous shacks. In the past the small number of altruists willing to correct the audience were hampered by the apathy of the majority whose attitude was that since there was no law compelling property owners to observe principles of good taste, the matter could not be dealt with by individuals. The yearly influx of motorists on our highways, however, has created a very different attitude. The public, and more especially the discriminating motoring public, resents the hideous artificial substitutes of glaring bill boards and trashy "hot-dog" shanties for vistas of wild flowers, green grass, and shaded streams.

Mrs. Rockefeller helps. The remedy is at hand and is being applied in conscientious doses in the form of a series of competitions for the improvement of roadside refreshment stands. About a year ago, while Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was motoring through New England, she was impressed with the general hideousness of the roadside stands scattered along the way. She decided that the condition had been deplored long enough, and that it was time to do something about it. Immediately upon her return to New York she communicated with Alton Bement, director of the art center, and placed at his disposal an initial contribution of $7,500 to be used as a basis of a campaign fund to improve the appearance and usefulness of the wayside stands throughout the country.

The announcement of Mrs. Rockefeller's plans brought a large number of offers of co-operation from commercial and civic organizations and from interested individuals. Adolf Gobel, Inc., placed at the disposal of the art center an additional $10,000 with the request that it be added to the fund. The Art Center, in co-operation with the American Civic association of Washington, D. C., then announced a series of four competitions as a means of stimulating an interest in the appearance and utility of the roadside stand. The first contest was concluded December 15, 1927, and awarded prizes amounting to $1,000 for photographs of existing stands for the purpose of securing information of prevailing conditions. The second contest, which closed March 15, offered prizes totaling $3,000 for architectural drawings of ideal stands through which it is hoped to encourage the building of more attractive structures. The third competition has just been announced and is to be in the nature of a clean-up campaign. Sixteen cash prizes ranging in amounts from $200 to $5 are to be awarded for photographs showing the most orderly arrangement of the exteriors of refreshment stands and their premises with particular emphasis on the planting and tasteful arrangement of flowers, trees and shrubbery, and discrimination in the use of advertising matter. In addition, $100 each will be paid for the first fifteen stands that are built from the prize-winning designs of the second competition.

Eight Hundred Enter Contest. In the first contest there were eight hundred entries with photographs of refreshment stands in every state in the Union, and some from Mexico and Canada. The pictures submitted ranged from the severely unmounted to specimens in every conceivable form and color. Women, it developed from the contest, own and operate about two-thirds of the roadside stands in the United States, ranging from school girls anxious to earn money for high school and college tuition to an old woman of eighty-two who wished to start a chain of stands running from coast to coast. Old couples, too, were high on the list of stand owners.

SAFE Oil...
 CLEAN Gasoline...

Today's motors demand them

MANY oils on the market today can't stand the gaff in modern high-speed motors. Don't take costly chances. It's so easy to protect your car by asking for Pan-Am motor oil. This oil is safe. It is refined from paraffin base crudes that produce a tougher oil. That's why it will protect the hottest friction spots in any motor. Your car will also perform better with clean Pan-Am gasoline. This gasoline is refined with unusual care to remove carbon-forming elements and dirt. That means a cleaner motor—less carbon trouble—added power.

A RIFT IN THE LUTE.

We have heard a good deal lately about "entrenched Protestantism" in this country, of which the Boston Christian Register boasts—an entrenchment of Saharan aridity as well as of intolerance of Christendom's oldest church—but, to quote the poet, there seems to be a "rift in the lute" and one of considerable dimensions. For here again comes protest from the Church Temperance Society composed of Episcopal clergymen, declaring that Prohibition "is a failure because of its lack of moral, legal and spiritual foundation and justification," because "it is contrary to the teachings of Christ and entirely un-Christian in its application and results," and that, therefore, repeal, or at least modification, is imperative. The pronouncement declares further that prohibition "is a Mohammedan, not a Christian, doctrine," and pointedly observes that real temperance is concerned with over-eating as well as with over-drinking and demands self-control in general.

Another "rift in the lute" is pointed out by Andre Maurois, the distinguished French author, in his comment on the attitude of the social leaders of America which was made plain to him during his recent visit to this country. He writes that he was "curious to see what could an entirely dry country be like," and adds: "I have not seen such a country. The United States is not an entirely dry country—far from it. In the private houses where I was invited to dinner my hosts offered me numerous wines, often champagne, always cocktails (which I refused). These drinks played a very important part in the conversation. I had the impression that every household had its bootlegger, as it had its grocer or butcher. Every month the bootlegger came to take the order and filled it faithfully. By the very honest people who described it to me, this traffic was regarded as natural and picturesque. They recounted the adventures of bootleggers as they might have narrated the lives of the great pirates of the eighteenth century. They laughed over them."

THE UNROMANTIC HELLESPONT.

Really, something ought to be done to prevent such unromantic swimming meets as that which took place in the Hellespont recently. It was a sort of free-for-all swim staged by 17 American college men who are on a cruise of the Aegean. They all plunged into the waters famed in poetic lore and very easily got to the other side, not exactly in mass formation, but close enough together to make the thing amusing rather than thrilling.

One of the boys went the whole distance using the backstroke in exactly 54 minutes and 30 seconds. He rested five minutes and then swam back again, making the return trip in a little less than 53 minutes.

The full seriousness of this swimming party may not appear at first thought. A brief period of meditation, however, reveals that terrific liberties have been taken with romance and poetry. It was thrilling and inspiring for Leander to swim to his love on the other shore. It was again thrilling for Byron to imitate that hero. Even Richard Halliburton found the stunt still thrilled the public enough to make it financially profitable for him to swim the Hellespont.

But now! Seventeen college boys have splashed across the famous stream, and the feat has become tame. Sic transit something or other.

NEWSPRINT FROM HARDWOOD.

Of no little interest to Americans is the report from New Zealand of the discovery there of a successful process of making satisfactory newsprint from hardwood. The problem the New Zealand experimenters faced, and are said to have solved, was the production of paper of the tensile strength required by the mechanical processes of rapid printing. Until now such required strength has been provided only by wood pulp made from coniferous or evergreen trees.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, Aug. 24.—Mrs. F. M. Ironside and son, Frederick, of Wilkeson Park, L. I., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hotelling on Broadway.

A few of the members of Esopus Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, attended the card party at Mechanics' Hall, Kingston, Thursday afternoon.

A clam bake will be given under the auspices of the Methodist and Reformed Churches Wednesday, September 12, at 6 and 7:30 p. m. This bake will be held in the Reformed church house. Everyone who enjoys a good bake will surely be present.

Hope Temple, No. 56, Pythian Sisters, will hold a picnic for the members and their families at Golden Rule Inn, the popular resort on Broadway, Wednesday, August 29. Busses will leave Spinneweb's waiting room at 2:30 p. m. Pot luck dinner will be served at 5.

Charles Beaver is ill at his home on Broadway.

Miss Elsie Townsend, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wallace C. Mable, on Green street, has returned to her home in Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Pearl Hotelling of Brooklyn is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Terpening on Salem street.

The Port Ewen Free Library will be closed until further notice, due to illness on the premises.

Milton G. Townsend of Kingston and Edwin H. Hummel of South Broadway have returned home after spending a week at Cook College, Montour Falls, N. Y., as students of the State Christian Endeavor Summer Assembly. These two young men motored there and returned by way of Elmhurst. During their stay at Cook College they visited Savannah Glen, Cheaugua Glen and Watkins Glen, and enjoyed boating and swimming on Seneca Lake. Seneca Lake and Watkins Glen are known the world over for their beauty. The lake is the most beautiful and the deepest of the Finger Lakes, the average depth being 500 to 600 feet. It is a large spring 40 miles long. The unusual thing about it is only four times in history has it been frozen over and the last time was in 1912. The glen is a deep winding canyon worn through the rocky strata; the cliff varies in height from 100 to 300 feet. In the glen there are series of waterfalls dropping from heights ranging from 60 to 130 feet. The section around Montour Falls and Watkins Glen is very beautiful and a vacation there is well spent.

DYING MAN SAYS HE WAS ROBBED OF MOVIE INVENTION

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—A little gray-haired man, 74 years old, is dying in Bellevue Hospital, a city institution, bitterly bemoaning the fate which robbed him of the millions he thinks should rightfully be his. He says he is the inventor of the motion picture projection machine.

The inventor, John Leroy, was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage last Saturday while working in his little shop on West Forty-fourth street and taken to the hospital. He rallied yesterday for a time and showed the doctors a mass of clippings he had saved to prove his claim.

He said he first invented a crude projector in 1875 while employed in a photograph establishment here but laid it aside for a further experimentation. It was not until 20 years later that he gave his projector a trial with Edison's kinetoscope. It still did not work and while he was making improvements on it before seeking a patent someone else patented a projector similar to his and his work was made useless. He says he feels sure the plans for the projector which was patented were taken from his invention.

He was working on a new invention, which he refuses to discuss because he was afraid someone might steal it, when he was stricken. Doctors held out no hope for his recovery.

COMPOSER AND FLUTIST AT THE MAVERICK

Something special has been announced for the Maverick music concert at Woodstock, for Sunday afternoon in the "Concerto" composed by Colla McPhee, to be played by Mr. McPhee at the piano with a second piano version of orchestral score played by Inez Koutzen. Mr. McPhee has won himself admirers for recent work at the Maverick concerts who look forward to the recital for August 26.

The program opens with a Sonate from Gaubert for piano and flute with George Barrere in his first appearance this season at the Maverick music hall. He will be accompanied by Inez Koutzen. The McPhee concerto follows the Gaubert sonate; the third part of the program consists of flute and piano, all French composers being presented, including C. Saint-Saens, G. Faure and C. Debussy. Following a number of stringed concerts, the composer-pianist and popular flutist are expected to draw an exceptionally large audience. The concert begins at 4 o'clock daylight saving time.

Tried to Open Haldane's Coffin

Glenage, Scotland, Aug. 24 (AP).—The grave of Viscount Haldane, British statesman who was buried here yesterday, was found opened this morning with indications that an attempt had been made to pry open the coffin.

Lying asleep beside the opened grave was a man who stopped the funeral procession of the former cabinet minister in High street yesterday at Auchterarder.

Awakened by a cemetery attendant, the man was quoted as declaring that he had spiritualists; leaners and had an appointment with the Viscount. When he stopped the procession yesterday he asserted that Haldane was not dead and he repeated this in the graveyard today.

The police said that the man had admitted opening the grave.

GUNMEN ACTIVE IN SULLIVAN COUNTY

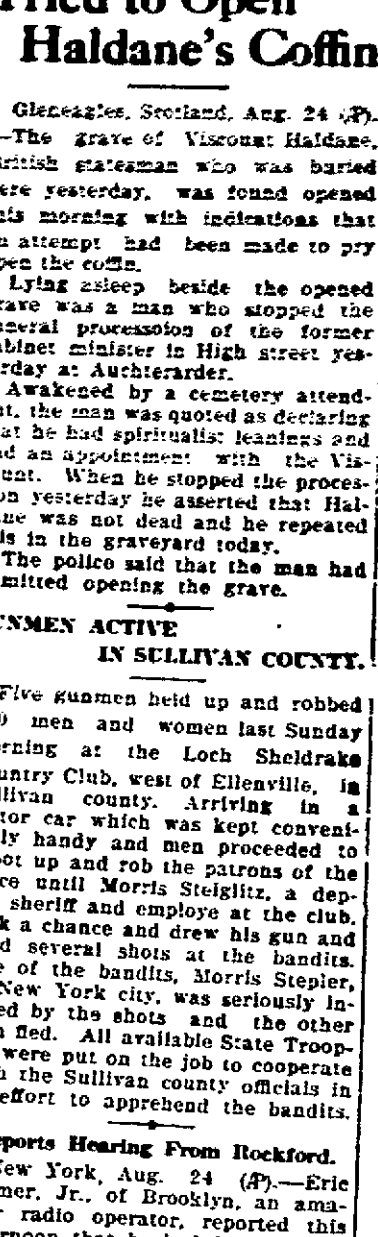

Five gunmen held up and robbed 150 men and women last Sunday morning at the Loch Sheldrake Country Club, west of Ellenville, in Sullivan county. Arriving in a motor car which was kept conveniently handy and men proceeded to shoot up and rob the patrons of the place until Morris Steiglitz, a deputy sheriff and employee at the club, took a chance and drew his gun and fired several shots at the bandits. One of the bandits, Morris Steigler, of New York city, was seriously injured by the shots and the other men fled. All available State Troopers were put on the job to cooperate with the Sullivan county officials in an effort to apprehend the bandits.

Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation Sues to Prevent Operation of Catskill Mountain Lines Buses and Also of Kingston-Queens Line.

A temporary injunction issued by County Judge Joseph M. Fowler was continued by Supreme Court Judge Russell at Albany on August 18, the return date of the order, in the matter of the application for a permanent injunction brought by the owners of the Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation against F. Allen Davis and the Catskill Mountain Lines, defendants. Application for relief was made to the courts by the Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation which operates a bus line from Kingston to Margaretville and intermediate points under authority of the Public Service Commission.

Plaintiff contended that the Catskill Mountain Lines, which commenced operation of a bus line between New York city and Fleischmanns and intermediate points, was operating without authority and damaging the business of plaintiff company. Damages in the sum of $5,000 are sought by plaintiff for loss of business during the time the Catskill Mountain Lines were in operation.

A temporary injunction order was issued by County Judge Joseph M. Fowler on application and affidavits of the plaintiff company. This order to show cause was returnable before the Supreme court at Albany on August 18 when Judge Russell continued the injunction order. A bond in the sum of $250 has been given by the plaintiff company to compensate defendant line for damages in case the court's final order is adverse.

Under the operating schedule of the Catskill Mountain Lines, of which F. Allen Davis is president, there was a regular printed schedule between New York city and Catskill mountain points. The office of the Davis Company is at 249 West 51st street, New York city.

John W. Eckert appears for the Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation in the proceeding.

Interstate Question Raised.

The plaintiff corporation in its application for relief sets up the fact that the defendant corporation has authority to operate through the villages and the city of Kingston and the towns through which it operates while the plaintiff company has such permission and consent as well as the permission of the Public Service Commission. Plaintiff alleges that the line is not an interstate line as it operates between New York city and points within New York state. The defendant company, however, alleges that it is an interstate line as it operates through the state of New Jersey in operating its bus line from the Catskill Mountains to New York city.

Plaintiff in the papers filed in the case alleges that passengers were being and had been carried between points along the line of the Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation wholly within the state and affidavits of persons who rode between Catskill Mountain villages and Kingston are included in the papers.

Queens-Kingston Line Enjoined.

A temporary injunction was also issued by Judge Fowler in the application of the Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation against Orson J. Buck and Glen H. Green, operators of the Queens-Kingston bus line. This order, returnable before the Supreme court at Albany on August 18, was adjourned at that time by stipulation of counsel. It is alleged that the Queens-Kingston line carried passengers from points along the line of the Kingston-Pine Hill Bus Corporation from Fleischmanns to Kingston and intermediate points without having secured the permission of the Public Service Commission and to the detriment of the plaintiff bus corporation. This line is known as the "Green" line.

Kitchener in Retreat From Official Cares

Kitchener Island is a real lotus land of tropical beauty in the middle of the great River Nile, not far from the great cataract.

When Lord Kitchener lived near Assuan, he loved to leave the haunts of men and steal quietly in a small boat to this island, which he made his own. It was entirely uninhabited and was a perfect wilderness when he took it over, but he brought to it tropical Indian trees and planted there fig and banana trees and made beautiful and picturesque palm groves with seats made from palm leaves.

In the center of the island he built a small kiosk for himself, and resting there, away from the busy town, he could see the stately white-sailed feluccas winding their way through the various islets and could hear the Nubian boatmen chanting as they sailed along. In the distance he could also hear the peculiar droning of the water wheels and the hum of innumerable insects.—Weekly Scotsman.

Savely Kitchen Treasure

A lady was many weeks without finding a cook. In despair she at last answered an advertisement in an Irish paper. She had a reply and appointed an interview, defraying the woman's fare over.

"Can you cook?" asked the lady. "Yes, marm," was the reply. "Do you understand French cooking, as my husband likes dainty little dishes?"

"Why, lor, yes, marm," said the cook. "I understand all furris dishes." "Really?" cried the lady, whose delight knew no bounds. "What can you do?"

"Well, marm, I can cook French beans, German sausages, Brussels sprouts, Jerusalem artichokes, Spanish oysters, Dutch Cheese."—London Answers.

Promotes Great Ticket Contest to Boost Fair.

100 GIRLS STRIVE FOR PRIZES

Attendance at the New York State Fair to be held in Syracuse, August 27 to September 1st, is expected to pass the high water mark of all past performances. At no time in the history of the institution has there been so great an interest and so determined an effort to put the attractions in the mammoth spectacle before the public, as during this present season.

In Syracuse, the local Chamber of Commerce, comprising more than two thousand members has put its shoulder to the wheel and the committee appointed to work with the Department of Farms and Markets has among other projects, organized a ticket selling contest in which more than 100 girls have enrolled. Tickets good for any day in the Fair week are being sold, not from especially constructed sidewalk booths as in other years but from door to door and office to office and the sales are growing in tremendous volume.

The Chamber has scheduled a list prizes to be awarded the girls who sell the greatest number of tickets and the quality and the attractiveness of these premiums has every girl literally up on her toes. First prize is a dashing red sports model Chevrolet; second prize is a Chevrolet coach and third prize is a beautiful diamond ring set in white gold, valued at $350. In addition there are scores of other prizes, none of them valued at less than $50.

With the finest variety of high class exhibits ever presented, together with a program of educational features, the classics of motor and trotting world, an unequalled display of fireworks as well as a selected group of the world's greatest entertainers who will appear twice daily on the outdoor stage—and of course the prize entries from the finest stock and dairy farms of the Nation—the management of the 1928 State Fair is justified in anticipating the greatest attendance in history.

Governor's Day, on Thursday of Fair Week will have a much greater significance than usual for by Fair time the candidates of the two major parties will have been officially notified of their nominations and the 1928 campaign will be well under way. Senator Curtis has signified his intention to visit the State Fair and the outstanding figures in political circles the country over are scheduled to "speak during the week."

On Monday of the week there will be the annual conference of Mayors of New York State Cities. A business meeting in the morning and a tour of inspection of the Fair in the afternoon is the program. Monday is also Hambletonian Day and the kings and queens of the equine world will enter this red letter event. The Hambletonian is the outstanding race in the Grand Circuit program and the purse is $70,000, the largest purse for any race of its kind on any track in the world.

Special days are the order this year, and Tuesday will be Farm and Home Bureau Day, Friday is Farm Machinery Day and Saturday of course is the day when the motor enthusiast gets his fill of satisfaction and pleasure. The 100-mile auto championship race will draw the greatest racing pilots in the world.

Production has been ordered increased on the new line of DeLuxe Oldsmobiles, which were introduced only two weeks ago. Orders received from dealers when the first of the DeLuxe models were delivered equalled the entire production schedule for the remainder of the year, making necessary the production increase. The new DeLuxe line, as the name implies, consists of specially designed and finely finished body types on the new Oldsmobile chassis. It supplements the standard line of body models which, with the chassis, remain unchanged.

For the eleventh consecutive month Studebaker sales have shown an increase over the corresponding month of the year previous, according to an announcement by the Studebaker Corporation of America today. Retail deliveries for July were 40% greater than in July, 1927, and sales for the last ten days of the month were the largest of any similar period in the history of the company.

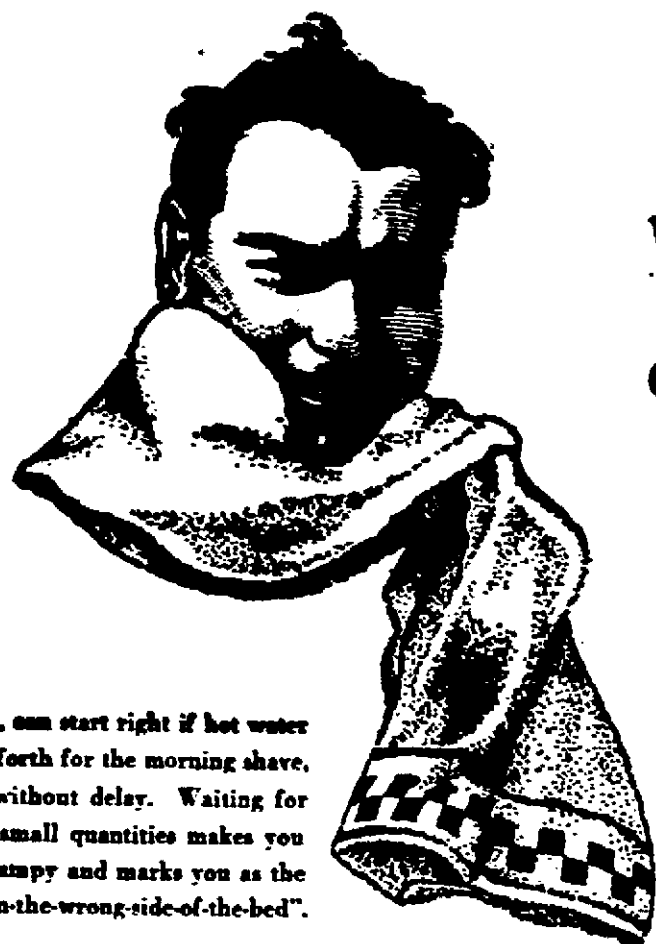

APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE
HEARD ZION CONCERT

Despite the heavy rainfall Wednesday evening a large audience heard the Livingston College quartet's concert at Epworth Hall. Preceding the musical program, James Edward Mason, noted negro orator, was introduced by the Rev. E. O. Clark, but was brief in his talk in order that the quartet might have all the time necessary to render its pleasing selections, which were thoroughly appreciated. The accompanist was Mrs. Clarine Michael, Ithaca Conservatory graduate, who is instructor of music at Livingston College.

So pleasing was the program that the Rev. Mr. Clark was approached by a number who would like to have the quartet return to Kingston. It is felt that with sufficient cooperation the singers might be brought back to this city on another occasion. The pastor of the Franklin Street A. M. E. Zion Church, the Rev. E. O. Clark, wishes to thank all who patronized the concert for the benefit of the church.

Miss Lillian Davis, of Staten Island spent the week end visiting Mrs. George Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton and daughter, Shirley, and Evelyn Yeaple of Walden are guests this week of Mrs. George Grant.

"My Day Starts Right
When There's Plenty of Hot Water on Tap"

Your day, too, can start right if hot water is on tap to flow forth for the morning shave, bath or shower without delay. Waiting for water to heat in small quantities makes you impatient and grumpy and marks you as the one who "got-up-on-the-wrong-side-of-the-bed".

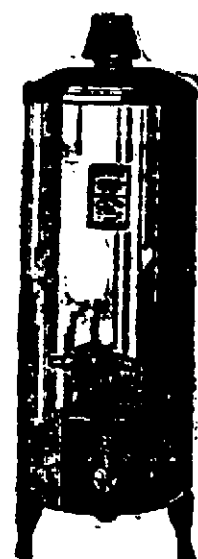

With a gas storage water heater the water is stored up hot and ready to flow forth at the moment needed. The cost of operating such an automatic heater is surprisingly small for there is a special low charge of 95c per thousand cubic feet for all gas used in excess of 3,200 cubic feet per month for the house equipped with a gas storage water heater. This rate means that all gas consumed in excess of a normal range usage is purchased at an extremely low rate.

More Members Wanted.

Under the subject of new business, Dr. Crispell, physician in charge of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital, expressed the sentiment held by all that the Ulster County Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health should be greatly enlarged by the addition of all people in the community interested in these two vital city and county problems. It might therefore be stated that any person wishing to become a member of this committee may do so by sending their name and one dollar membership dues to Dr. Mary Gage-Day, secretary of the committee. By doing this they are entitled to a vote on the work and general activities of the committee.

Will Buy New Auto.

Owing to the fact that the automobile now in use—when not in repair—by the tuberculosis nurse is costing so much in time, money and endurance to operate, Cornelius Hume, Mrs. Hayes and Miss Hagelweide were appointed a committee with power to purchase a new automobile and dispose of the present one as well as possible.

Officers Elected.

The final business transacted was the election of officers for the coming year, which was as follows: President, Judge Joseph M. Fowler; vice presidents, Sam Bernstein, the Rev. Charles G. Ellis, Mrs. Clara N. Reed, the Rev. William Kennedy, Mrs. Mary Hayes, Captain Everett Fowler, the Hon. John A. Snyder of Saugerties, the Rev. Francis M. O'Reilly, Mrs. C. V. Hasbrouck, and the Rev. Mr. Cameron of Rosendale; secretary, Dr. Mary Gage-Day; treasurer, Charles Snyder. Subcommittees will be appointed later. The reports mentioned are as follows:

Annual Report.

The work of the Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health has been carried on the past year with increased success.

The Summer Camp, for undernourished children was so successful last summer, and the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals, last winter, netted more funds than ever before, so that the camp has been conducted again this summer and with even greater success than was obtained in the initial effort. Many kind friends have contributed, in various ways, to produce this result. Others will report in detail on this assistance tonight.

The contracts have been let, for the work of getting water, gas and electricity, as well as sewage connection, for the new hospital and the work is progressing. In the meantime the old hospital has not been forgotten. The Garden Club has filled the window boxes with, with beautiful plants, and Burpee's, Inc. has made the flower-beds brilliant, with many flowering plants. Mr. Herb filled the beds at the nurse's home. A fresh new green and white awning was donated by the Elks, and Mr. Johnson placed the same on the bungalow. This adds much to the comfort and appearance of the building.

The patients welfare fund has been generously remembered by the following: The Lend-a-hand Society of Sahler's Sanitarium, five dollars; Mrs. Schmidt, ten dollars; Mrs. Karl Schwarzwald of Chichester, fifteen dollars; Mrs. George Hutton, ten dollars; T. B. Jacobs, two dollars; Stone Ridge Grange, ten dollars; Mrs. C. N. Reed and friends, ten dollars; T. W. Vanderlyn, one dollar; Major K. Mandell, in memory of Joseph Block, twenty-five dollars; J. T. Johnson, seventy dollars.

Through the efforts of Capt. Everett Fowler and his friends a car has been sent every Tuesday and Thursday to those patients, who were able to go for a ride. Supplies of fresh fruit have been sent to the hospital and ice cream Sunday and Wednesday the entire year.

Last Christmas, for the first time, the outside grounds were decorated, by a large tree secured by Mrs. Hayes from Masten and Strubel who donated it. Mayor Dempsey, Clark and Watrus, Kingston Gas and Electric Co. arranged the placing and lighting of the same. In the evening this produced a brilliant and cheering effect on the top of the hill, visible for some distance. Mr. John Garbarino, repeated his yearly gift of a beautiful tree for the patients and nurses and through the efforts of Mrs. Reed and her friends every patient and nurse was well remembered. The Elks most generously donated fifty dollars toward Christmas cheer at the hospital. The entertainment on Christmas Eve was given by the Y. W. C. A. Shubert

Choral Club, and services on Christmas Day were held by Rev. Mr. Kemper and choir of St. John's, who sang the Christmas Carols. Later in the day The Children of Mary and boys from St. Peter's church gave an entertainment.

Eight times during the year the patients have been delighted with movies through the courtesy of the Rotary Club and Mr. Hall.

The present Superintendent, Dr. Raymond Crispell, has been untiring and vigilant in his service. He has visited the hospital every day, to his efforts and that of the efficient head nurse, Miss May Ward, R. N., is due the improved morale and cleanliness of the institution, which rejoices the heart of every friend of the hospital in the city and county.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY GAGE DAY,

Secretary.

Nurse's Annual Report.

(June 1, 1927 to June 1, 1928.) Lillian B. Hagelweide, R. N., county nurse to the Ulster Co. Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health.

Statistical summary:
No. of Known Cases on Register June 1, 1928 266
No. of New Cases admitted to care 61
No. of Old Cases readmitted to care 7
No. of Patients discharged: Reasons:
Died 23
Moved away 5
Other care 4
Apparently cured 3
To County Tuberculosis Hospital 24
Ray Brook State Hospital 5
Other hospitals 7

Diagnostic chest clinics were held in cooperation with the Tuberculosis Division of the State Department of Health at the following places:

Highland—November 4, 1927, and March 20, 1928.
Ellenville—November 29, 1927, Saugerties—November 30, 1927, and March 21, 1928.
Kingston—December 1, and 2, 1927, and March 22 and 23, 1928.

130 patients were examined and X-rayed in the county.
123 patients were examined and X-rayed in the city of Kingston.

Positive cases found 34
Suspected cases found 40
Negative 32
Observation 125

It is a recognized fact that there are from 8 to 10 active cases of tuberculosis in any community for every death from tuberculosis. The earlier the diagnosis the surer the cure. Early cases of the disease must be found.

1,209 visits were made to patients, or to the homes of such. As tuberculosis is a grave medical, social as well as an economic problem, it is necessary to confer with other workers. 225 such conferences were held; 37 were with health officers; 123 with other physicians; 32 with nurses, and 23 with others.

All reported cases of tuberculosis cases are visited and health supervision given, unless a request is made not to do so.

Reading of the reduction of the death rate of tuberculosis in the United States, may seem encouraging, but I fear Ulster county cannot be proud of its record. Over 50 per cent of our deaths from tuberculosis were among wage earners. Increased staff and facilities to carry on a more intensive case finding and educational program is unquestionably needed.

One year ago the children's Health Camp for the children of Ulster county was organized. The prime purpose of Camp Happyland is to husband and increase the health capital of children below par in vigor and vitality. There are in all communities certain children who are neither definitely sick nor vigorously well. They do not need hospital treatment, but neither are they competent to keep pace with other more sturdy children. Experience has shown that such handicapped children can be helped by teaching them proper health habits. Gain in weight is only one index of improvement. Gain in poise and sportsmanship are noted, and most important of all, they learn to like vegetables, milk and other healthful foods.

During the season of 1927 we cared for 45 children, and this year about 60—some of the boys gained 3 additional pounds, and the girls are not falling far behind this record. Before admitting the children to camp, physical defects were corrected as far as possible, in order that the child would be "free to gain." The camp staff have been most faithful in their care and interest to the children placed under our care. The proceeds from the Seal Sale, and interest taken, by kind folks from Ulster county enable us to maintain Camp Happyland. I hope the dividends of the investment will roll in for many a year—dividends measured not in dollars but in strong men and women and happy children.

Twin Deer Now At Forsyth Park

Busy Stork Leaves Three Bundles at Uptown Park Containing Four Young Deer—Eleven Deer Now in Herd.

The busy stork flew over Forsyth Park recently and dropped three bundles in the deer park. As the bundles slowly unwrapped themselves four baby deer emerged. One of the bundles had a double load.

The four little strangers are frisky and healthy and are attracting considerable attention at the deer enclosure at the park.

There are now eleven deer in the Forsyth Park herd and they are proving one of the most popular attractions at the park and the deer enclosure is visited daily by many persons. Since the arrival of the four baby deer the attendance of visitors has been greatly increased.

HEADACHE

ALTHOUGH Vicks VapoRub is used primarily as a quick external treatment for colds, thousands of users have found it equally good to check headache without "dosing." Rub it on the forehead and temples; also melt a little in a bowl of hot water and inhale its soothing vapors. This treatment clears the head immediately and usually brings quick relief.

Official Home of N.Y. Governors

Executive Mansion at Albany is packed with inside political history of state—cobbler's shops and chain stores known as gubernatorial headquarters.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 24 (AP)—In a large, rambling brick building on Eagle street, on the fringe of the business district of this city, has been packed much of the inside political history of New York state during the past half century.

In the Executive Mansion where Governor Smith, Democratic presidential nominee, eats, sleeps and does much of his work while in Albany, 18 other governors have made their homes.

It was in the large reception room, at that time called a parlor, that Grover Cleveland was notified, 24 years ago, of his nomination as Democratic presidential candidate. In its library have been formulated speeches by Tilden, Robinson, Cornell, Cleveland, Hill, Flower, Morton, Black, Roosevelt, Odell, Higgins, Hughes, White, Dix, Sulzer, Glynn, Whitman, Miller, and Smith.

Behind its walls, or in the surrounding grounds, have been settled many problems of state policy. From its shelter two men have gone to the White House. In these days the mansion is once again the scene of hastily arranged political conferences, between the governor and his advisers, or leaders of his party from other sections.

Albany was made the seat of the state government in March, 1797, during the term of Governor John Jay. In the same year, Governor Jay leased from James Caldwell, a building at 55-59 State street, to be used as an executive mansion. The same building was occupied, in 1801, by Governor George Clinton. The site now is occupied by the National Commercial Bank and Trust Company.

Gov. Tilden Opened Mansion. It was not until 1875 that New York state bought the Robert L. Johnson property at 138 Eagle street as a residence for its governors. Two years later the Hoyt house at Eagle and Elm streets was added to the property. The Executive Mansion was opened by Governor S. J. Tilden at a public reception in January, 1876.

The surroundings have changed somewhat since handsome carriages drew up at the iron gateway and discharged guests for the Tilden reception. The grounds at the rear today are overshadowed by the high wall of an orphanage, while in tiny backyards just beyond the southern wall, flat-dwellers' weekly washings lend a homely touch to the scenery. On the east, the mansion faces Eagle street, and on the north, Elm street, and here again, modernity is fast ousting history and cobbler's shops and chain grocery stores vie with one another in encroaching on the gubernatorial precincts.

The house itself is surrounded on three sides by a wide porch, on which the governor's trio of parrots sun themselves on warm days. There have been few changes since the days of Tilden, although electric lights have replaced the flickering gas jets of a previous generation. To the right of the entrance is an office in which the governor usually meets newspapermen and other casual visitors. A large reception room is used for more formal occasions, while on the second floor is the study in which Governor Smith holds his more intimate conferences with political leaders and friends. This study overlooks the zoo in which the governor enjoys his evening stroll.

The remainder of the building is devoted to living rooms for the family and servants' quarters.

NEW PALTZ

New Palitz, Aug. 24.—Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Alice Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Winkler and family of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. George Wicks and family of New Palitz moved to the New York state camp situated on the east bank of the Neversink river. The distance there and back covered about 114 miles. The party returned to Mr. Hall's home in Grahamsville, N. Y., spending the evening there. Mr. and Mrs. Wicks say this is a very picturesque and entirely mountain climbing trip, and worth while making. The camp is situated along the Neversink river and has a place to cook entire meals, also a shed covering table, and a place to rest; for the night should one care to camp overnight.

Harry McIntosh, son of Lee McIntosh, of Gardiner, is now in the telephone department of the New York Telephone Company.

The hotels at Lake Minnewaska are now full of guests. At last reports there was only one room available, which was a double room at the Cliff House.

The meeting of Huguenot Grange Saturday night, August 18, was turned over to the past master, Irving C. Barnes, who was in charge of the program. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Harp were host and hostess.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a food sale in the new Pappas building on upper Main street on Saturday, August 25, from 2 to 5 p. m. A nice assortment of aprons and towels will also be on sale.

Six of the prettiest girls in New Palitz, dressed in brilliant Spanish costume, danced the Zongola as a feature number at the library cabaret. The dancers entered slowly under the light of the moon but as the exotic music quickened, vivid light brought out each graceful figure. The dance, which was directed by Miss Taylor, was applauded to the echo.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur DuBois called on Mr. and Mrs. William Minard at Ohlsville last Sunday.

At the annual meeting of the trustees of the Elting Memorial Library, held in July, the following officers were elected: President, Edward C. Elmore; vice-president, Mrs. Vanderlyn Pine; secretary, Miss Helen Hasbrouck; treasurer, Mrs. D. V. Z. Bogert. At the meeting August 13 the treasurer reported net receipts from the entertainment given by the Boston Strollers at the Normal School $40.50; receipts from the cabaret, $120.50; cash balance on hand, $128.48. The following committees were appointed for the year: Books, Mrs. C. C. Ward, Mrs. Stahl, the Rev. J. Robert Halunshaw, Miss Ella McLauri, Miss Sue Shaw, Mrs. B. Matteson, Miss Dorothy Gliddings; membership, Miss Helen Hasbrouck, Mrs. Lawrence Vandenberg, Mrs. Martin Lee DuBois, Mrs. Perry Deyo, Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Jay LeFevre, Mrs. Henry Hurling, Mrs. L. D. LeFevre, Mrs. Catherine Schoonmaker, librarian; order of arrangement, Mrs. D. V. Z. Bogert, Mrs. Fred Deyo, Mrs. Alexander, Miss Leiberfeld, Mrs. Russell R. Atkins, Mrs. Fred Coddington; garden, Mrs. Jacob Deyo, S. M. Kevan, Mrs. Jerome LeFevre, Abram E. Jansen, Mrs. Denniston; publicity, B. H. Matteson, Elizabeth LeFevre, Daniel Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Deyo of Binghamton are visiting their cousins, Mrs. Bruyn Hasbrouck and Mrs. Margaret Hall. When a boy Mr. Deyo lived in New Palitz and attended the old academy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Denzinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Krom and daughter, Wanda; Mr. and Mrs. Landon Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brundage and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Beatty and son, Judson, motored to West Branch in the Catskills near Slide Mountain on Saturday and camped there over night, returning on Sunday night. They report a wonderful time.

George W. Boland and son of Brooklyn spent the last week in this village, stopping at the New Palitz Hotel. Mr. Boland was a resident of this town many years ago, living with his parents at Butterville. He is now foreman for a large horse stable for the Borden Milk Company at Brooklyn. Many of his New Palitz friends were glad to renew his acquaintance while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sesson, Mrs. Edward LeFevre and two daughters and William Schoonmaker spent a pleasant evening in Gardiner last week. Clinton Seward is assisting in the grocery department of J. J. Hasbrouck and Company's store. Joseph E. Hasbrouck, Jr., had the misfortune to fall and break his arm. Dr. Chandler was the attending physician.

During the thunder storm the past Wednesday evening about nine o'clock the lightning struck the high tension wire on a pole situated by the railroad crossing at Springtown. Myron Gades and Joseph Quest, boys of the Mita Nakawa Camp, while entering their car, received a shock and were stunned for a time with no serious results and were able to proceed on their way. A while later another bolt struck a large tree.

New York—A truckman and an engineer who once spoke at the same meeting are now rivals and their names are in the papers every day. "Have you ever met Herbert Hoover?" Governor Smith was asked. He says when the first rocket car killed its only occupant, a cat, more than 600 women, principally Americans, wrote protests.

All-White Outfit for Summer Wear

Snowy Attire Is Prominent Where Well Dressed
Women Assemble.

With the summer season in full blast it is interesting to note the return to popularity of the all-white costume. White at the seaside, white at the country club and white at the mountains all show that the summer girl is selecting at least one white coat to complete a successful ensemble.

All white is heavy georgette and crepe satins is used for formal effects everywhere. This type of coat would, of course, appear ill at ease upon the beach, whereas it is exceedingly happy to complete a formal afternoon or evening ensemble. Wonders in pure white are seen but the "old" shades sponsored this season are newer. These in oddly woven woolen or silk and woolen materials are just the thing for sports.

Pique and linen, too, are finding it a profitable season. They are used in many of the straightline coats that complete the sports costumes. Cotton fabrics, by the way, are having an unusually popular season. In the printed effects they are very chic and many printed coats complete interesting ensembles.

Doris Dawson, the featured motion picture player, who appears in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," is selecting a smart sports ensemble, chose all-white for youthful charm and chic. Miss Dawson's sweater coat was of white silk and wool mixture and possessed a very smart swagger as to line. It was made doubly interesting by the use of a Deauville scarf in which red, white and blue tones predominated. This and the tops of the socks and Deauville slippers supplied the only color relief.

Youthful Country

The first map on which the word Australia appears was published in the year 1824.

OUR DAILY PATTERNS.

A Pleasing Style for Morning Wear.

6157. This wearable one piece frock of cotton print has a front plaited skirt with flat back, joined to waist portions that close diagonally in front, and are finished with a broad shaped collar. The sleeve is comfortably short and trimmed with a turned up cuff. Green and white gingham with the binding of white or self color will make this a cool looking frock. In cotton foulard or in tub silk it is also pleasing. Another attractive development would be zephyr with collar and cuffs of organdy.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. To make the frock for a 38 inch size will require 3 3/4 yards of 36 inch material. To finish with bias binding as illustrated will require 4 1/2 yards. The width of the dress at the lower edge with plaits extended is 2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Send 15c in coin or stamps to The Freeman for our up-to-date Fall and Winter 1928 Book of Fashions showing color plates, and containing 500 designs of ladies' misses' and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 30 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

New Silks for Frocks;

New Wools for Street

Clothes for spring show a wide range of fabric in their Paris version. Almost any fabric has been pronounced wearable as long as it is adaptable to the silhouette of the season and conforms with the color schemes.

But there are conspicuous favorites in the new styles, notably mure, taffeta, silk faille, wool crepe, wool velveteen materials and floral printed chiffon taffeta and satin. Asperic, tulle and jersey of plain and fancy weaves are important among the flouzier weavers. There is quite a bit of flannel in the new collections and thousands of yards of polka dotted dark blue or black foulard crepe de chine or satin.

For morning and sports wear nearly every house shows tweeds. The mixtures are usually light in color and weight—beige, brown and blue combinations leading. Shetland wool and jersey are the general choices for sports blouses or sweaters.

The dressmakers seem in league to put women into dark blue or black for street wear as well as the beige and bronze shades. Blue and black are stressed by most of the houses, but each shows light colors as well. Many dark coats for afternoon are unlined; where linings appear they are usually of the material of the dress underneath the coat, particularly if it be a silk dress. Printed chiffon is a favorite for afternoon costumes. Marquise and silk voile are old materials reappearing for afternoon dresses. Fancy weaves, too, volles are occasionally made into tailored costumes, with or without coats.

A new combination for evening is chiffon and taffeta similarly printed in floral design and both fabrics employed in a single frock.

Soprano Hit By Golf Ball

Lake Placid, N. Y., Aug. 24 (AP)—Helen Purcell, colorful soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, was recovering from her camp on Lake Placid today from a slight concussion of the brain caused when a golf ball was hit just above the eyes by a golf ball.

She was playing with her vocal coach, Thomas Thomas, and other members of the house party who were entertaining at her camp. Wabers, and was just preparing to sing when the golf ball, which was a steel ball, driven by an unidentified player from a neighboring golf course, struck her on the forehead.

The force of the blow rendered her unconscious for several minutes. Dr. Thomas T. Owens, who attended her, at that time was fearful that the blow had struck her eye might be impaired but later said she was suffering only from a slight concussion of the brain and nervous shock and there would be no permanent ill effects. He said she would probably be able to sing tonight at the benefit concert being given for the Saranac Lake Society for the Control of Tuberculosis, for which several thousand dollars worth of tickets already had been sold.

Matter of Accuracy of Greatest Importance

I do not know that there is any thing except to be accurate, which is so valuable as an incident of education as accuracy. And accuracy can be taught. Direct lies told to the child are as bad in the balance when weighed against the falsehoods of inaccuracy. These are the fatal things. And they are all pervading. I scarcely care what is taught to the young if it will not implant in them the habit of accuracy.

Now, look at the matter in this light. Take the speech of any man by any given day. For once that he truthfully gives a wrong color (with an eye to his own interests) to anything which he states or narrates, he mistakes or misdescribes 20 times, on account of his inability to tell anything accurately.

Besides, there is this important result from a habit of accuracy, that it produces truthfulness even on those occasions where a man would be tempted to be untruthful. He gradually gets to love accuracy more even than his own interests; at last he has a passion for accuracy.—Arthur Hays Sulzmann

Valuable Hardwood

Birch is Canada's most important hardwood. Of the seven Canadian species, the yellow birch (Betula alba) and the paper birch (Betula papyrifera) are the best known. The former is used for flooring, furniture, cabinet work, and vehicle stock, while the tough, resinous bark of the latter has supplied the aborigines for centuries with the material for covering their famous birch-bark canoes.

Proof That Golf Is a Mental Disorder

Noblesville, Ind.—Dr. Earl Brooks, president of the local park board, propounded the following questions on human behavior: "I visited the park and observed 35 persons playing on the golf course. A heavy shower came up, but the players continued their game just the same. There were 63 persons in the bathing pool when it began to rain and every one of them rushed out of the water to the shelter house. I have seen that happen several times, and it is more than I can understand."

BIRDS AND WHALES SOON TO COME BEFORE LEAGUE

Probably Will Be Taken Under
The Protection of the League Body.

Geneva.—Birds and whales probably will be taken under the protection of the League of Nations.

As a matter of fact the league already has had a commission of experts at work for some time to see if an international convention cannot be launched relative to whales and other deep sea riches.

As regards the protection of birds, it is expected that the September assembly of the League of Nations will be asked to summon an international conference for the purpose of launching a new international bird convention to replace the 1902 Paris convention on the subject.

The migratory character both of birds and whales is such as to make any regulation relative to them necessarily of an international nature and hence within the scope of the league, while their economic value to the world as a whole is declared sufficiently great to justify the league's attention.

Both the convention on whales and the one on birds will have for their primary object the fixing of "open" seasons in such a manner as to relieve the world of any danger of the species becoming extinct. Whales, it is declared, are just as much in need of this protection as birds.

The initiative for placing the protection of the migratory birds under the auspices of the league has been taken by the international committee on bird protection and various members of the league council have promised to support the resolution before the assembly authorizing the league to call an international conference for next year.

The necessity of protecting birds will be urged especially from the standpoint of agriculture, where they maintain a certain balance against the insect world, and also from the standpoint of game food.

Here's Explanation of Lightning Bug's Light

Washington.—The fireflies, or "lightning bugs" that dance in the air over twilight lawns carry torches that burn on exactly the same principle as a lighted candle. That is, they combine a combustible substance with oxygen and produce light. The great advantage the firefly has unconsciously worked out over man-made illuminants is that his tail-light makes so little heat that it can fairly be called a "cold light."

The shining of fireflies, and of other animals and plants, used to be called "phosphorescence," because it looks like the light given off by a bit of rubbed phosphorus in the dark. That, however, is a misnomer, for it is not caused by phosphorus. The basis of the light is a substance called "luciferin," which means "light-bearer." By itself it does not glow, but a second substance known as "luciferase," present in all luminous organisms, causes it to combine with oxygen and this makes the luminescence. A further chemical reaction breaks the luciferase away from the combination, permitting it to be used over again an indefinite number of times.

Doctors Wage War on Infantile Paralysis

New York.—Believing that on the basis of the history of the disease they cannot look forward with any degree of assurance to an absence of outbreaks of infantile paralysis during this summer and fall, doctors and research men throughout the country are organizing for a concerted attack on any epidemic that may develop.

No satisfactory method of immunization from the disease has been developed, but there is now a convalescent serum, taken from the blood of recovered patients, which acts to nullify the virus if injected in the early stages of sickness.

Funds already have been established in San Francisco, Boston and New York to defray the expense of collecting and distributing this serum, which will be placed in the care of committees of physicians especially informed and qualified to direct its use.

Kellogg Lands On French Soil

Havre, France, Aug. 24 (AP)—Secretary Kellogg landed on French soil early this morning. He was received by Mayor Meyer of Havre and a crowd of people lining the dock, which was decorated with the flags of the nations that are to sign the war rearmament treaty in Paris Monday.

The Ile De France, aboard which Mr. Kellogg made the trip from New York, entered port at 2:30 a. m., while the secretary and other passengers were asleep.

Mr. Kellogg was wrapped in slumber when a crowd began to collect on the dock to see the man who is leading the movement to end wars. The dock was lined with spectators when signs of life appeared aboard the big liner, about 6 o'clock. That part of the dock set aside for the reception of the secretary was surrounded by eager hundreds. Mr. Kellogg disembarked at about 7 o'clock and on landing was greeted by Mayor Meyer, who presented him with an artistic gold fountain pen donated by the city of Havre for use in signing the treaty. He expressed thanks for the gift and the mayor told him that his efforts in favor of peace were hailed with the greatest satisfaction by the people of Havre.

Mr. Kellogg's stay here was reduced to a few minutes. He left for Paris at 7:30 on a special train joined at his disposal by the French government. He reached Paris at 10:15. Michael J. McDermott, chief of the current information section of the state department, who is accompanying the secretary, announced that Mr. Kellogg would sail from Havre for Dublin Wednesday aboard the cruiser Detroit, together with President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State. He will return to Cherbourg in time to depart for the United States on the Leviathan September 4.

Radio Appeals To Gov. Smith

Friends Say Campaign Will See No Counterpart of The Old Stumping Days of Bryan and Roosevelt and Others.

New York, Aug. 24 (P).—There will be no open air campaigning for Governor Smith, if he can help it. The radio has too much appeal for him. Personally he is known to have felt for some time the futility of conducting an extensive outdoor speech-making tour when such modern means as the radio, with its voice-carrying qualities, is available.

The governor has had considerable experience in taking the stump and extending the voice in an effort to reach the fringe of the crowd. He has campaigned five times for governor and many more times in lesser political roles. But he also has seen candidates come and go, simply because they had worn themselves out by outdoor tactics at what he considers the most important period of any campaign—the last week or two.

Whether the Democratic nominee adheres strictly to an indoor speaking program, of course, depends upon the availability of broadcasting facilities, but it is certain, his friends emphasize, that the campaign now under way will see no counterpart of the old stumping days of Bryan and Roosevelt and others who, at times, made as many as 20 or 25 speeches a day to field audiences.

In covering his itinerary about the country, and there is growing evidence that it will be a real swing, Governor Smith, of course, will appear on the rear platform of his train at intervals, shake hands, and probably say a few words, but wherever a radio hookup can be obtained which will cover the territory he thinks should be covered, it is generally believed among those close to him he will take advantage of that method.

Declines Invitation.

No more striking evidence that this is the Democratic presidential candidate's idea of the way his campaign should be conducted was given than when he turned thumbs down on an invitation that he make a speech to the great outdoor crowd which is expected to turn out for the Democratic rally at Seagirt, N. J., Saturday night.

This rally, held yearly at the "Governor's Day" exercises, Smith probably will attend, but he will make no speech. The rally also will be attended by Governor Moore of New Jersey and Governor Ritchie of Maryland.

The governor and his party will stop at Spring Lake, a short distance from Seagirt, remaining there over the week end.

It has not yet been decided whether he will go direct to Syracuse from New Jersey, but it is thought most likely will return to Albany first. He has an engagement to attend the state fair at Syracuse August 31.

Enroute to Spring Lake from Albany, Governor Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, members of the family, and many close friends, stopped at New York to spend the night at the Hotel Hamilton. The governor had an engagement today at Democratic national headquarters where he expected to see, among others, former Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia and Justice Wardell of San Francisco, who managed his convention campaign in California.

Just what they were to talk about to one another, but campaign plans are in the making and they undoubtedly were on the program.

On the train from Albany the governor was asked whether he thought there was anything more important in a day long campaign running for the state or the house or the ticket with him.

"No one can amend the platform," Mr. Smith declared.

The governor said the reaction to his acceptance speech thus far had been favorable judging from the messages he had received. Some 3,000 telegrams had reached him within an hour after he completed the address, he said. He also declared, in answer to questions put to him, that he did not see how any "sensible" person could take offense at his stand on prohibition.

While under considerable strain owing to the last minute confusion which attended the switching of his notification ceremony from the east steps of the state capitol to the Assembly chamber inside, the Democratic nominee could not help falling back into his characteristically jovial mood as soon as he set foot on his native New York soil.

"See that you get your right bags, boys," he said to a crowd of newspapermen waiting for a red cap, and he hurried off to his hotel as photographers boomed flashlight powder in the air.

Amateurs Report SOS Signals From Rockford

Down on Small Island Fifty Miles off Newfoundland and are Safe Is Message Reported—Wireless Experts Cast Serious Doubts as to Message's Authenticity.

Chicago, Aug. 24 (P).—Out of the air early today there came a wireless SOS signed "The Rockford Flyers."

It said the Rockford-to-Sweden plane, missing since early Sunday morning, was down on a small island off Newfoundland and that the fliers, Bert Hassell and Parker Cramer, were safe.

Joy born of what apparently was first definite information of the plane's fate quickly faded, however, when wireless experts began casting serious doubts as to the message's authenticity.

It seemed certain that a message purporting to come from the plane was actually broadcast, for two amateurs, one in Chicago, and the other in Toledo, Ohio, made independent reports of hearing it. On the other hand it appeared very improbable to experienced radio men that the message was sent from the plane's small set, "KHAH."

"Get word to the Associated Press and our families," said the first message received by R. J. Harris, Chicago amateur, "that we are down on a small island 50 miles off Newfoundland, and are safe."

Harris, whose station is 9CEJ, asked the sender who had signed as "The Rockford Flyers," to stand by for ten minutes while he communicated the message to the Associated Press. Harris then returned to his set and later reported receiving the following message:

O. K. and Safe, Food Low. Our oil feed failed us and we landed on a small island. We are O. K. and safe, but food low. Using a generator for power for communication. Our position is on a small island about 50 miles off Newfoundland. (This would mean they had been hundreds of miles off their course.)

After receiving this, Harris said he asked the sender to set a later hour during which communication might be resumed. The reply was: "We are very tired and need sleep badly, so can't have a schedule tonight. Will call you tomorrow night 9 p. m. Central Standard time or 11 p. m. Eastern Standard time. Please get word to your families. Best regards to all. (Signed) The Rockford Flyers."

Harris said when he first heard the signals they were "swinging" badly, a condition he compared with "fading," which is familiar to radio set operators listening to distant stations. Very soon, however, the signals became clear and reception thereafter was simple, Harris said.

It was at 12:15 a. m. Chicago Daylight Saving time, that Harris reported hearing the signals from "KHAH." Joseph E. Williams, a Toledo, Ohio, radio amateur who said he also was in communication with the Greater Rockford, gave the time as 11:30 p. m. to 11:45 p. m. Eastern Standard time, or approximately half an hour earlier than the Chicago operator. The plane, if it was the plane, said it had been trying all evening to get in touch with someone. Williams said when he first heard it, it was calling 9CEJ, a call which might have been mistaken for Harris' 9CEJ.

Experts Express Doubt. Among the several amateurs and others who doubted that the messages originated from the Greater Rockford's set, was W. H. Hoffman, chief radio operator of the Burgess-Battery Company, of Madison, Wis., which installed the set in the plane. Hoffman said it would have been impossible for the Greater Rockford's set to have transmitted on a wave length of 42.8 as both Harris and Williams reported. The plane's equipment, Hoffman said, was so constructed that it would not send on a wave length more than six points removed from 32.4, the wave assigned it.

Don Mix, another operator of the Burgess Company, pointed out as did several persons in Rockford, Ill., none of fliers, that neither Hassell nor Cramer was sufficiently skilled in wireless operation to have sent a lengthy message. That either could have transmitted in the expert manner which both Harris and Williams said was employed in the message they heard, would be virtually impossible, Mix insisted.

Lacked Radio Knowledge. It was because of the fliers' lack of radio knowledge, Mix said, that a simple code, consisting of letters of the alphabet, was arranged in advance of the flight. It was the letter "R" heard early Sunday morning that placed the plane as 75 miles off Cape Chidley—several hundred miles from the plane's immediate objective, Mt. Evans, Greenland.

Contradicting the authenticity of the messages, too, were the apparently reliable reports yesterday from Copenhagen that a plane had been seen and heard over the village of Fiskensasset in Greenland. The information was sent by the sheriff there and he said that the inhabitants of the village, as well as of Leichenfelds, observed the plane Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Drury Property For Aviation Field

The purchase of the Drury homestead property on Drury Lane in the town of New Windsor, about six miles out of Newburgh, by A. B. Artell, a Rye, N. Y., lawyer, who is acting to form a club which will maintain club houses and operate an aviation field, was announced Thursday. The Drury homestead, which had been in the hands of the Drury family for several generations, was purchased when Frank Drury moved to California by the Hudson Counties Estates, Inc., a realty holding corporation with offices at 309 Wall street, this city. George Hall of Kingston is president of the corporation and the other officers are W. L. Burnett of Newburgh and N. B. Gross of this city.

In the transfer of the property to Mr. Artell the negotiations were conducted through W. L. Burnett, who is manager for the Strout Farm Agency at 76 Broadway, Newburgh.

The Drury property, which includes about 170 acres on Drury Lane between the Cocheton pike and the Little Britain road, is on a high hill which overlooks the Hudson river, several miles distant. The top of the hill of some 70 acres is practically level and an excellent aviation field. From the field can be seen the river which will act as a guide for aviators. There is a large house on the premises and another building will be erected by the new owners. The place was bought for club purposes and for an aviation field, according to Mr. Artell, although he would give no details as to what the intentions of the new owners might be. Possession under the contract is to be on January 1, but possession may be given earlier than the date set in the contract.

It is understood that a road will be built from Drury Lane to the summit of the field. The possibility of making the field a stop for air mail planes is being discussed.

N. B. Gross when seen at his real estate offices at 309 Wall street this morning confirmed the report of the sale of the property, which is considered a very valuable one.

FACSIMILE COPIES QUOTE DANIELS OPPOSING SMITH

Washington, Aug. 24 (P).—Facsimile copies of a letter dated April 22, 1927, quoting Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, in opposition to Governor Smith were distributed today by the publicity department of the Republican National Committee.

Address to Mrs. Nelly Hall Root, Long Beach, Cal., the letter denied published reports that Daniels had endorsed Smith.

"I think it would be a fatal mistake for the Democratic party to nominate a man with the wet record of Governor Smith," it continued, "and I could not stand for any wet."

Levine May Be Deported Soon

The final steps in the long-drawn-out battle between the federal authorities and Morris Levine, Ellis Island detainee, in the government's effort to deport him from American soil as an "undesirable", were taken this week by Commissioner H. A. Rowland in New York City, and according to the defendant, who has been temporarily released on a thousand dollar bond, his departure for Europe will take place early in September, provided no stay of execution is granted by the federal court in a hearing set down in New York City for September 6.

Levine's case is a peculiar one. Last summer when police arrested him almost simultaneously on two serious charges, one for alleged connection with forgery operations and the other as the proprietor of a disorderly house, the local man had never been arrested, he declares, "nor had he ever done a day's time".

With the two arrests, government authorities immediately rushed themselves in adding a case against Levine, who had never been able to obtain his citizenship papers, and for the past six months the defendant has been engaged in a sharp battle to keep his feet on American soil. The forgery charges, which the prisoner maintained throughout his trial were "trumped up" and "framed", could not be proved, and Levine was dismissed. On the disorderly house charge he was found guilty before County Judge Fowler and a fine and jail sentence imposed but execution of sentence was postponed until September term of court.

Larios Buys VanEtten Building

A contract was signed Wednesday whereby title to the Van Etten building at 63 John street will be transferred to Leo Larios of this city. Mr. Larios is connected with the Liberty restaurant on Wall street. The Van Etten building, owned by Mrs. John G. Van Etten, is a two story brick building occupied on the ground floor by the law offices of Andrew J. Cook and for years was occupied by him and the late Judge John G. Van Etten. Offices on the second floor are occupied by G. Wallace Codwise, engineer.

The property, which adjoins the Mohican market and is directly across from the public parking grounds, it is understood was purchased as an investment and will be remodeled. The first floor will probably be turned into stores. The second floor which will be used for office purposes will be occupied by Andrew J. Cook as law offices when alterations are completed.

The contract of sale was signed on Wednesday and the transaction was made through the real estate offices of James E. Sneed. Under the contract the new owner will take possession on December 1.

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL AUTO GOES IN DITCH

Claiming he fell asleep at the wheel of his car, a man driving a Chevrolet coach bearing a New York city license ran into the ditch just south of Winchell's store at Shokan shortly after midnight this morning, and turned over. He escaped injury and the car was not damaged. The car was observed running from side to side of the road for some distance before it went into the ditch, and judging from the odor on the driver's breath he had been partaking of some sleeping potion. Assistance was sought from Chester Lyons's garage at Shokan to turn the car over and haul it out of the ditch, which at that point is about four feet deep.

News of the Day In Wall Street

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—The newly organized National Metal Exchange promises to be 100 per cent representative of the metal industry, both here and abroad, said President Erwin Vogelsang in announcing the approval of 43 new members, which leaves only 33 memberships to be filled from applications before the committee.

James A. Campbell, president of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., stated the incoming business is at least 10 per cent better than anticipated and operations will be maintained around 85 per cent of capacity during the fall and winter.

Record August activity of the automotive industry is still reflected in mounting industrial figures in Detroit, which for the third successive week set a new high record last week with 257,602, an increase of 7,504 over the previous week and 1,529 over the same week a year ago.

Canadian exports of gold to the United States in July were $8,035,925, against $9,009,929 in June.

Engineering news-record reports the money value of construction contracts let in the United States last week at $53,503,000, substantially in advance of the previous week, when the total was $54,997,000, and the corresponding week a year ago, with a total of $66,959,000. Contracts let since January 1 total $2,338,573,000, against $2,044,573,000 in the same period last year.

Dance at Stone Ridge.
The regular weekly dance will be held at the Stone Ridge Grange this evening. Hosted by Malenbender's orchestra.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—A sensational upturn in prices, rivaling those in the 1909-1910 share market, took place in today's stock market as a result of the broad buying movement set in motion by the unexpected drop of nearly $23,000,000 in brokers' loans last week. Extreme gains in scores of the most active issues ranged from 3 to 14 points, and were fairly well maintained despite the waves of profit-taking which swept through the market at frequent intervals. Total sales in the first three hours ran close to 2,500,000 shares.

Pools, encouraged by the loan figures and optimistic earnings and business reports, bought stock in tremendous volume, and apparently succeeded in attracting a large outside following. "Bear" traders, who sold stocks heavily in the last few days in the belief that loans would increase $100,000,000 or more, were driven to cover. New high records were established in rapid succession, nearly 200 points being chalked up by early afternoon.

High-priced specialties recorded the most spectacular advances. Adams Express soared 14 points, Wright Aeronautical 10 1/2, American Smelting 10 1/2, Montgomery Ward 9 1/2. Case Threshing and Midland Steel Products preferred 7 1/2 each and Allied Chemical 6 1/2, many of them setting new peak prices. Curtiss, Lambert, Sears Roebuck, General Motors and Purdy Baking advanced 5 points or more. Pittsburgh and West Virginia rallied 3 points and several of the other high grade rails moved up 2 points or more.

Machold Succeeds George K. Morris

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—H. Edmund Machold of Watertown, former speaker of the assembly, was elected chairman of the Republican state committee today. He succeeded the late George K. Morris of Amsterdam.

Mr. Machold, who has been president of the Northeastern Power Company, controlling several utilities, after his election informed the committee that he had severed his connection entirely with the water-power interest.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets).

Western New York cut carrots were again in very limited receipt today and under active buying prices further strengthened. Fancy muckland carrots wholesaled as high as $2 per bushel basket. Washed stock brought $2.25.

The demand for Hudson Valley Clapps Favorite pears was very slow. The market was dull. Offerings were moderate. Sales were mainly reported at $1.75-$2, occasionally $2.25, per bushel basket. Western Bartlett pears were plentiful. Prices tended lower. Boxes brought $2-$3.75.

Owing to the scarcity of white cabbage, values again advanced in a stronger market. Jobbing business on upstate New York Copenhagen cabbage was transacted as high as $50 per ton. Several carloads of Virginia cabbage packed in crates of approximately 100 pounds realized mainly $3.

Despite the lighter receipts of cucumbers, the market situation and prices showed no material change. Trading, however, was a trifle improved. Sales on cucumbers from upstate were reported principally at $1.12-$1.25 per bushel basket and on Hills at $1.75-$2.25.

Arrivals of celery from all parts of the state were limited. Fancy well-blanching large celery in the rough peddled out at $3-$3.50 per two-thirds crate. Fair and ordinary quality, but green stock, brought $2.25-$2.75.

The market on apples was irregular, fancy large fruit of most kinds meeting a moderate outlet. But scant attention was given to off-grade and small. Western New York U. S. grade No. 1, 2 1/2 to 2 1/2 inch transparents apples sold at $1.12-$1.25 per bushel basket. Hudson Valley Duchess apples of U. S. grade No. 1, 2 1/2 to 2 1/2 inch, brought $1.50.

State Big Boston lettuce of good quality sold readily but inferior dragged. Receipts were moderate. Crates of 24 heads from Western New York commanded $1.50-$3. Oswego county shipments realized $5.00-$2.50.

The marriage of Miss Catherine Brierly Bellows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bellows, of Great Barrington, to Ralph Van Gaasbeck Longyear of Kingston, took place Saturday evening, August 18, at 6 o'clock in the Congregational Church at Great Barrington. The Rev. C. Thurston Chase, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Eleanor Blair of Hackensack, N. J., her room mate at Mount Holyoke, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Louis Smith Campbell of Brooklyn, N. Y., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Sheden and Miss Florence Montgomery of Mount Vernon, N. Y., college classmates of the bride, and Miss Harriette Zimmler of Great Barrington and Washington, D. C. F. Halsey Lefterand of Brooklyn, N. Y., was best man, and the ushers were Louis Smith Campbell of Brooklyn, N. Y., Paul R. Bellows of Rockville Center, L. I., and Kendrick F. and Charles W. Bellows of Great Barrington. The decorations of the church were carried out in green and white. The altar was completely banked with small cedar trees and white hydrangeas. The ends of the pews of the two center aisles were marked with bouquets of white gladioli. Two small boys, Robert Allen and John Hassett, served as pages. They were dressed in Lord Fauntleroy suits of white satin and carried white satin kneeling cushions. Miss Marguerite Cook, the organist, presided at a half-hour organ recital preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Thomas Conyngham of Montclair, N. J., and Miss Mabel Brierly of New Brighton, Pa., aunts of the bride, sang two selections. The bride wore a cream white silk dress, trimmed with old lace, with a veil of tulle and a close cap of old rose lace, caught with orange blossoms. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of bridegroom, and carried a large snowed bouquet of white roses. The wedding gown had been worn by her mother. The maid of honor wore a gown of orchid silk and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in chiffon gowns, two of fresh color and two of pale green. They carried loose bouquets of snapdragons. A reception for relatives of the two families was held at the home of the bride's parents at 155 Castle street. The house was attractively decorated with ferns and gladioli. After a wedding trip in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Longyear will live at 5731 Blackstone avenue, Chicago, Ill., and they will be at home after October 1.

Sewer Explosions In Newburgh

Newburgh, N. Y., Aug. 24 (AP).—Five sewer explosions damaged five buildings in the business section of this city this afternoon. The explosions were said by fire department officials to have been caused by the presence of gasoline in the downtown sewer system. First estimates placed the loss at $50,000.

The first explosion, occurring shortly after noon in Water street, near Third street, was followed by four other major explosions at intervals of a few seconds, and later by several smaller explosions in the residential section eight blocks distant. The more important explosions occurred at Water and Third streets; a short distance north of Third and Water streets, and in Smith street, which parallels Water street. The damage in the business section was confined to a radius of less than half a dozen blocks.

Four persons were taken to hospitals, but authorities reported none seriously hurt.

Several stores caught fire immediately after the explosions and the entire fire department was called out. The flames were extinguished in a short time. Fire broke out in the basement of Stern's department store after the front of the building was shattered by the explosion. The Stern's store was badly damaged by fire six months ago and remodeling had just been completed. The front of Schoonmaker's department store also was badly damaged by the explosion. Windows were shattered in the fronts of several other stores and in dwellings in the residential section.

Another Woman Swims Channel

Dover, England, Aug. 24 (AP).—Miss Laddie Sharp, seventeen year old London girl, swam the English Channel today, arriving at Dover from Cape Gris Nez, France, at 3:55 p. m., after 15 hours and 5 minutes in the water.

Miss Sharp is the fifteenth person to swim the channel and the fifth woman to accomplish the difficult feat.

The London girl, seeking a £1,000 prize offered by a newspaper to break the women's record established by Gertrude Ederle, of 14 hours 31 minutes, was unable to better the mark.

Another woman, Miss Ivy Hawks, 25 years old, conquered the channel only five days ago, completing the swim in 15 hours and 16 minutes.

Miss Sharp trained on a diet of raw steak with an occasional glass of stout. She said that these made her fat and thus added to her buoyancy in the water. Her special boast is that the circumference of the calf of her leg, 16 inches, is the same as the measurement of Gene Tunney's celebrated under-panning.

Stock Market In Wild Outburst

New York, Aug. 24 (AP).—The stock market, which has been under restraining influence of high money rates for several weeks, broke out in a wild outburst of bullish enthusiasm today on buying influenced by the unexpected reduction of nearly $23,000,000 in brokers' loans.

Blocks of 5,000 to 10,000 shares changed hands at frequent intervals, with the early gains in the popular issues running from $2 to $14 a share. More than a score of issues broke into new high ground for the year in the first half hour of trading.

Inasmuch as stock prices had advanced steadily during the past week, Wall Street was looking for a big increase in brokers' loans, many of the estimates running above $100,000,000. The decrease was attributed in some quarters to the dissolution of bond syndicates, which had been borrowing large sums on unsecured bonds, and in others to the fact that the bulk of last week's buying was for the account of professional operators who were able to finance their purchases without recourse to bank borrowing.

Curtis Attacks Smith's Plan

Washington, Aug. 24 (AP).—Quick and active campaigning on the eastern front seems in prospect with Senator Curtis, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, striking out at the state liquor control plan of Gov. Smith, the Democratic presidential nominee, as he takes to the warpath in this section.

Opening the Republican campaign in the east yesterday in an address at Rocky Point, N. J., Senator Curtis diverted from his prepared speech, promising tariff revision, to attack the family delivered prohibitionism of Gov. Smith on prohibition plan as "an attempt to fool the American people."

"You know," he declared to the Rhode Island Republicans, "under the constitution of the United States it is impossible for our friends on the other side to do what they promise in regard to prohibition."

And then the Kansas senator told how he had enforced the prohibition law back in 1885 at Topeka, Kansas, when he was prosecuting attorney, and when "they were saying out there just like they are saying over the nation today that the prohibition idea can't be enforced."

Today Senator Curtis was back in Washington preparing to renew his campaign in the east. He will speak Tuesday in the "back yard" of Gov. Smith at the New York State Fair at Syracuse. He had planned to discuss agriculture there but the senator showed in his first appearance in the national campaign yesterday that he prefers to "stamp" without prepared speeches and in the way he has done it for more than a third of a century in his native state.

Quintero to Act as Judge

Mandel Quintero, Walk Miller's

sensational lightweight boxer, who beat Kid Kaplan on the McLaughlin-Mandel card in Madison Square Garden last winter, will be one of the judges at the army boys' tournament.

Bill Singer, who has acted favorably in the capacity since the starting of the bouts at the army, will be the other judge. It was through Singer's friendship with Quintero and his manager, Walk Miller, that the prominent boxer was obtained as a judge for the scrapp.

Captain Edward C. Lawson of Battery B, 156th Field Artillery, who has charge of the bouts, said today that everything is set for the scheduled 24-round program that will start at 8:30 tonight. The matches are as follows:

Main bout, 6 rounds, Joe "Soldier" Vondick, local, vs. Jack "Red" Mosher of Newburgh.

Semi-final, 6 rounds, Kid Rash, New York City, vs. Chico Gonzales of Brooklyn.

Frenchy Duvick, Kingston, vs. Eddie Pollio, Brooklyn, 5 rounds.

Trial Day For "Big Bill" Tilden

New York, Aug. 24 (AP)—It's trial day for "Big Bill" Tilden, center of many a tennis controversy in the past.

The thirty members of the executive committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association meet at the Hotel Vanderbilt at 8:30 o'clock tonight to decide whether "Big Bill" has violated the amateur player-writer rule and, if so, what punishment he deserves.

Tilden himself will not be there. He has made his defense in writing. "Business" prevents a personal appearance.

"Big Bill," in his defense outlined in a letter to Samuel W. Colloom, president of the U. S. L. T. A., declared he has no intention of violating either the spirit or the letter of player-writer rule which he himself helped to formulate. If there was any violation, he declared, it was through ignorance and not intent.

Most observers felt today that the committee, whether it bars Tilden from further amateur play or clears him entirely, will see to it that the rule is clarified so that there can be no "ignorance" as to just what is meant.

Pirate met Giant in a double-header at Pittsburgh yesterday and the only beneficiaries were the St. Louis Cardinals.

While the Giants were breaking even with the Pirates, the Cardinals, without going near a ball park, returned to the lead in the National League pennant campaign. The even break cost the Giants two precious percentage points, enough to give the idle Cardinals the lead by a fraction of one point.

The standing today:

St. Louis . . . 71 . 48 . 59544
New York . . . 58 . 45 . 52643

The Giants started the day right when Larry Benton, aided and abetted by one John Scott, pitched them to a 5 to 3 win in the first engagement. In the second, however, the Corsairs, themselves afflicted with a pennant mania, unleashed a terrific batting offensive that swept the New Yorkers into a dismal 13 to 3 defeat.

The Giants' victory was due to smashing Carmel Hill for five runs in the eighth inning. A pinch hitter took Benton out of the lineup in this frame, and Scott, back in the Giant fold for the third time, held the Corsairs helpless in the last two innings. Benton, however, received credit for his 21st victory of the season. The Pirates battered Carl Hubbell, Lefty Faulkner, Chester Nichols and Vic Aldridge for 14 hits to make a runaway of the second game. In this collection were home runs by Grantham and Lloyd Warner, triples by Paul Wanner and Hennessey and doubles by Paul Wanner, Traynor and Grantham.

The Cincinnati Reds, taking two from the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2 to 0 and 5 to 1, leaped over the idle Cubs into third place and served notice that they are not yet to be counted out of the race. The Reds trail the leaders by only three and half games and, in turn, they lead the Cubs by only half a game and the fifth place Pirates by two.

Ray Kolp held the dodgers to three hits in the opener while the Reds bunched seven hits off Bill Doak to score enough to win. In the second clash, Ken Ash, just obtained by the Reds from Columbus, gave the Dodgers only six safeties while three opposing pitchers were pounded for 15.

The Philadelphia Athletics, beaten in Cleveland 3 to 1, slipped up to within four and a half games of the American League leaders, the New York Yankees, who were idle in the rain. Lefty Grove was in his very best form for the A's allowing eight scattered hits and fanning eight men. In the second he fanned the side on nine pitched balls without so much as a foul. He continued this string in the third by fanning Miller and then got two strikes and a foul on Langford on the next pitch, giving him a string of five strikeouts on 17 pitched balls. The A's bunched six hits at opportune moments off Miller to win. Grove's own victory string mounted to 19.

For the fourth straight day the Detroit Tigers downed the Boston Red Sox by one run, this time by 2 to 1. Owen Carroll, giving only six hits, chalked up his 14th victory of the season.

Fred Marberry held Chicago to five hits and the Washington Senators made it two out of three from the White Sox, 4 to 3, in 10 innings. Reeves' single scored Goose Goslin with the winning run.

Horses Raced in Rain at Ellenville

Harry Malsenheimer, leader of this city, and the boys render a fine musical program during the afternoon. The Citizens' Band has had the contract to furnish the music for the fair for several seasons.

The fair this year is worth attending. All that it needs to make it an unqualified success is fair weather.

The 2:28 Class Pace.

Although the rain that fell all day Wednesday made the half mile dirt track far from fast there was some excellent racing staged Thursday afternoon.

There were eight horses entered in the 2:28 class pace which was won by Iron Master, a brown gelding entered by D. H. Blair of New York City, who won first and third heats and finished fourth in the second heat. Iron Master would undoubtedly have made it in three straight heats if he had not broken in the second heat. All three heats of the race were clocked in 2:21.

The only accident of the day occurred during this race when the wheel of the racing sulky broke in making the last turn in the track and Princess Forest, who had finished first in the second heat, trailed the field and was placed eighth in the third and concluding heat. The driver, however, was uninjured.

The summary:

Iron Master, "D. H. Blair, New York . . . 1 4 1
Miss Wabun Brooke, "Max Karp, Newburgh . . . 3 2 2
Kid McKillo, "Frank Farrell, Newburgh . . . 2 3 3

Hollywood Mac Heads the Field.

In the 2:28 class trot, Hollywood Mac, a brown gelding, entered by Dr. Robbins, ran away with the field, winning three straight heats. Seven horses started in this race.

The summary:

A Fighting Finish.

The 2:14 class pace brought out three horses to face the starter and proved one of the most exciting races on the card with a fighting finish staged between Hal Regent, a brown gelding entered by Charles Kauve, and Joe Dillon, entered by Wheeler, Farrell & Wright of Stamford. Joe Dillon won the race by finishing first in two of the three heats. The third entry in the race, Slipway, entered by D. B. Rumsey of Chester, was outclassed, the other two horses slipping away from him early and leaving him trailing the field.
